Bridgeport.

Little Maud Russell has been quite sick this week.

John H. Jenkins is very much improving his premises.

Born, March—, 1883, to Mr. Riley Cardwell and wife a son.

Mrs. Emily Parent has been indisposed for a week or two.

That other wedding, she says, will take place about the first of April.

Mrs. Rebecca Crickett has five ducks from which she obtained six eggs last Tuesday.

Next.

The renewal of winter for the past several days has very much retarded the progress of farm work.

Mrs. Gussie Sargent and child, and her brother, Willie Crickett, are visiting relatives in Grayson and Hart counties.

By the carelessness of some one passing through the premises of Mr. Joseph Parent, set, one day last week, the broom sage was set on fire, which soon ignited the fence, causing a considerable loss in rails.

A canopy pulling at Mrs. Mariah Gaines' last Friday night. Through the exertions of her accomplished daughter, Miss Minnie, all went as smoothly as a marriage bed. Our schoolhouse is almost ready to bloom.

Wilder Dupuy's horse moving last Monday was an event long to be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present. The only misfortune about the whole affair was the fact that several of the boys were quite sleepy that evening after the day's work was finished.

Bloomington.

Miss Anna Quarles returned last Monday from a visit of a few days to relatives at the Forks.

Miss Mary Webster a beautiful little Miss of some 14 years, has been visiting friends in the suburbs of our little town.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—A couple of young ladies. Boys don't keep them away from our town more than a week longer, if you please.

Col. D. Glanton recently made a business trip to "the city" in the interest of his blacksmith shop at this place. We are glad to say he is making a success of this enterprise.

We don't know that it makes any difference who Nipper is, so he gives us all the news that in the neighborhood. John Jones, but the professor claims the cigars all the same.

Numbers of our fruit growers entertain great fears as to the safety of the apple crop. Recal, gentlemen, all say yet. The fruit buds were not sufficiently swollen as to be affected by this local frost.

Cap. Milton Arnold had his residence and furniture insured one day this week. This is as it should be, everybody should have a policy of insurance in some responsible insurance company, on their homes and contents.

John Bates, Esq., deserves the thanks of every man, woman and child in this section for his efforts in securing the extension of our turnpike, and the erection of the new bridge across Elkhoru. 'Nax let's have it placed at the site selected by the committee and all will be well.

Much interest is felt in this community in the two toasts which are "cutting" so lively at each other. The City of Frankfort may do a fair thing now since she has a rival, but our word for it rates will go up if she succeeds in crowding the Freize out. Let's all stand up to the man who has caused the reduction, S. V. Pence. 'Tis right to patronize home institutions anyway.

We are informed that a committee of gentlemen will wait upon the County Court the first Saturday in April, and urge upon the magistrates the necessity of an immediate appropriation for the support and maintenance of Mr. Besy Gravitt. The old lady objects to leaving her home to go anywhere. Although 107 years old she can't think of leaving the home. And we don't blame her, for there's no place like home, no difference how humble it may be.

The report of the committee locating the new iron bridge across Elkhoru at the old dam, will be laid before the court composed of all the magistrates in the county on the 1st Saturday in April, and will doubtless be concurred in by that body as it should be, as the location is a sensible one at having more convenience than that of any other of the proposed locations, and is endorsed and sanctioned by at least four-fifths of the people interested. Of course there will be objections urged, and other impracticable locations suggested, which is always the case. Let the croakers croak, but by all means give us the bridge at the point named by the committee.

NIPPER.

Win. Hartman, Louisville, says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility and shattered constitution with good results."

Parties wishing fine goods, such as diamonds, fine chronograph and horse timing watches, solid silver, &c., will save money by calling on Philip Selbert, the boss jeweler, before purchasing elsewhere.

Jett's Station.

Mrs. Helen and daughter, Stella, left for Illinois Tuesday last.

Mr. Jno. Bowen has been visiting in this neighborhood the past week.

Mr. Wm. Jett, who has been sick for a week or so, is up and about all right now.

Mr. Henry Thompson has a calf a year old that only weighs 37 pounds, so they say.

Mrs. Thomas Hearn and wife were out and spent the day with Mr. Jas. Hearn Sunday.

Billy Cline is fixing up his fence around his place, and is going to have the loss garden.

All we want now is a voting precinct here and we will be happy. What say you, Judge Bibb.

Hog stealing is the prevailing passion in this part of the country at the present time. A-K Marcus about it.

We understand Mrs. Margaret Cain wants to sell her place. She is thinking of going to Missouri to live.

Mr. Jno. Will Johnson was out to visit his sister, Mrs. Hearn, last week. Mrs. Johnson is also visiting Mrs. Hearn.

There has been between 25 and 40 cars of coal sold here since last fall. Cars run from 350 to 450 bushels each.

There will be a very large crop of tobacco put in this year around here, from the talk and looks of tobacco buds.

Dogs have been killing sheep at a lively rate for the last few nights back. Mr. W. W. Jett lost some to or 12 Mr. Wash Crutcher a few, also Mr. Tom Jett.

Switzer.

Mrs. Lizzie Hopkins is quite sick this week.

Mrs. Mattie Jones has been quite ill for some time.

Mr. Joel Head, of Monterey, was in our village last week on business.

Mrs. Emma Shortridge, of Scott county, is visiting friends in this locality.

There is more sickness in our village at this time than was ever known before.

Mr. Jesse Hockensmith and wife paid a visit to the family of Mr. Jett Jones this week.

Mr. Will Hopkins, of Covington, is visiting his brother, G. W. Hopkins, of this place.

Mrs. Malvin Jones, who has been very sick for some time, we are sorry to say, is still confined to her bed.

Miss Mattie Hockensmith, of Monterey, who has been visiting friends in Lexington for some time, is at present visiting at her grandfather's head.

Mr. George Wigginton, of Scott county, and a member of the Social Club of this place, will start for a visit to friends at Pleasant Hill, Missouri, in a short time. We are sorry to hear of our friend leaving the neighborhood but we extend to him the parting hand with a hope that he may reach his home's end in safety, and have a pleasant time during his stay, and when his visit shall have ended we gladly welcome him back to our ranks.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Published at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 24, 1893.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

Garden seeds in bulk at Banta's.

Chickens, geese, fish, and oysters at Banta's.

Dr. Justine B. Crockett, formerly of this city, died at Nevada, Mo., recently. The deceased removed with his mother, to Missouri, in 1853, being at the time a lad of eight or ten years.

Talk is cheap but there is no door equal to J. E. M. Don't let anybody talk you into paying as much for an inferior door as you have to pay for J. E. M. Price $4.00 per 100 pounds.

Assistant District Attorney Geo. DuRelle came up from Louisville Thursday and settled with Messrs. Jas. Saffell & Sons for the lot on which the Valley Mills stand, recently sold by them to the Government, and we may now expect soon to see work begun on the new post office building. Mr. John T. Buckley, who purchased the building upon the lot, began pulling them down Thursday.

Mr. John W. Rape has resigned as day policeman and accepted the position of keeper of the railroad bridge. No better officer than he has ever worn the blue in this city, but he has been so unfortunate as to get himself so crippled up in the service of the city that a position such as the one he accepted is much better for him, as he can not get around as lively as he once could. He will prove a faithful servant of the railroad company.

Mr. Sherman Fink, who lives upon the farm of Mr. R. K. Woodson, at the Big Elder, took his little son, Freddie, aged about ten years, out to work with him Tuesday morning, and about twelve o'clock the little fellow left him, saying he felt cold and would go to the house. Mr. Fink followed on in a few minutes after, but upon arriving at home learned that his son had not been there and started out to hunt for him, when he discovered his hat dangling in a small pond by the side of the Glens Creek pike, a short distance from the house, and thinking the little fellow might have fallen in, he procured a wood hook and began dragging the bottom of the pond, and in a few minutes his lifeless corpse was brought to view. It is not known how he happened to fall in, as no one was near him at the time.

Depot Deviltry.

Saturday evening the people who had gone down to the evening train from Lexington were highly entertained. A Capital Hotel waiter had gone into the ladies' car a brakeman, very properly put him out, after landing on the pavement, he called the brakeman, several insulting names, and a slugging match began. The police separated them and pulled the African, but released him in a short time.—Continued on page 16.

The true state of case is this: The colored man went into the car with a colored woman, carrying an awful of bundles for her, and as soon as she found a seat he deposited the bundles and was going out of the car when the brakeman came in and demanded to know if he was going on that train, to which the colored man replied that he was not, when the brakeman said: "Well you got out of here quick or I will kick you out," and gave the man a push which sent him out of the car and on to the platform of the car in front. Feeling indignant at being treated so the colored man remonstrated, the brakeman ordered him to leave, the colored man cursed him and the two came to blows, when Officer Stephens arrested the colored man and Officer Rupe the brakeman. The case was tried before Judge Speed Tuesday morning when the brakeman was fined five dollars and the colored man discharged. The brakeman then swore out a warrant against the colored man under the provocation law and he was fined $2.50 in Judge Buchanan's court.

Banta bought Early Rose and "White Star" potatoes in Michigan this year, therefore you can rely upon getting pure seed.

There will be a breaking of missionary jugs at the Christian Church on Wednesday evening.

A protracted meeting will be begun at the Christian Church in this city the latter part of next month.

Mr. John T. Buckley has purchased of Mr. James Saffell, sr., the old Valley Mills buildings for five hundred dollars.

Miles' Crystal Flour is sold at $8.75 per 100 pounds, and is guaranteed as good as any patent flour sold in the market, except the J. E. M.

Verily it is easier for a Condemned man to climb a greased pole head downward than to satisfy the average citizen of this unfortunate city.

The Presbyterian Church in this city, at its meeting on Friday night, called Rev. J. S. Hunter, of Georgetown, to become pastor of their Church.

Mr. A. C. Keenon, who has been very ill for sometime at his residence near this city, is gradually growing worse and his death at any time would not be his surprise to his family.

Prof. J. D. Pickett has rented the Strobridge property, on Main street, and removed his family from "Point Breeze," above the city, down to town. Dr. W. B. Rodman and family have removed to "Point Breeze."

Messrs. J. & J. M. Saffell have rented the room on St. Clair street formerly occupied by Drs. Rodman & Duval and have removed their office to it, and will hereafter be found there by persons having business with the firm.

South Shelby street is being rapidly built up. Two new houses are going up there now. Let the road connecting that street with the Shelbyville pike be improved so that the country people can get into that part of the city without going a mile around.

There is no place in the State where the divine right of kicking at any and everything is more freely exercised than in this city. If there has been anything of a public nature undertaken here in the last ten years, that a lot of growers did not kick against we don't know what it was.

Belle Point.

Mrs. Ben Johnson is visiting relatives in the Millville neighborhood.

Mary Lena Gaines, daughter of Judge R. E. Gaines, has been ill this week.

Miss Ida Ziegler, who has been visiting relatives in the Flat Creek neighborhood, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Isaac Culvert, who has been visiting Mr. Ambrose Hampton, left for his home near Peck's Mill Wednesday.

Mr. Robert Sanford, county assessor, has moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. Geo. Lewis, on Brown avenue.

Miss Alice Cox, after a visit of some months to her brother Walter, at Indianapolis, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. El. Roberts, conductor on the L. & N., accompanied by his wife, went to Lexington Saturday and returned Monday.

Mr. Geo. E. Jones is having a large quantity of excavator quartered over here, the boys say, to build a skating rink out of.

Miss Nanette Silvers went to Louisville on the Family Express Friday, in company with Mrs. Capt. Pence. They returned Monday on the same boat.

Mr. W. H. Lewis, our enterprising liveryman, who is just completing a dwelling on Front street, will soon begin the erection of a large liver, stable on the same lot.

Messrs. John and Wm. Penn are erecting a saw-mill on Stony Creek, near the Harvey woodlands. They will begin operations the first of next month. Mr. Geo. Jackson, the veteran millwright, of Frankfort, is putting in the machinery.

Personal

Mrs. Robt. H. Phillips is very ill.
